

ELDERLY WOMEN SAFEGUARDED

Tell Others How They Were Carried Safely Through
Change of Life.

Durand, Wis.—"I am the mother of fourteen children and I owe my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I was 45 and had the Change of Life, a friend recommended it and it gave me such relief from my bad feelings that I took several bottles. I am now well and healthy and recommend your Compound to other ladies."

—Mrs. MARY RIDGEWAY, Durand, Wis.
A Massachusetts Woman Writes: Blackstone, Mass.—"My troubles were from my age, and I felt awfully sick for three years. I had hot flashes often and frequently suffered from pains. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now am well."

—Mrs. PHOEBE COUSIN, Box 229, Blackstone, Mass.
Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness, should be heeded by middle-aged women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has carried many women safely through this crisis.

Textbook Publishers Complain.
Oklahoma City, Okla., Aug. 27.—Publishers of textbooks that have been adopted in the Oklahoma schools are making complaint that some districts are ignoring the contract and using books not adopted. The state board of education has admonished school teachers that the books adopted by the board must be used to the exclusion of all others.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

LITTLE Miss Katherine Louise Poland entertained with a lawn party Saturday evening from 5 to 7 o'clock a large number of little friends in celebration of her fifth birthday. She was the recipient of many gifts and wishes for many more such happy birthdays. She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Ray G. Poland, and the Misses Clara B. Waltrip, Gretchen Lacy, Mary Elsie Jameson, Esther Smith and Rose Kahn. After numerous games on the lawn the children were conducted to the living room, in which was an artificial pond, where each of them fished a souvenir of the happy event. It was here that the birthday cake was cut. Master Charles Wesley Dobbins cut the piece containing the dime, assuring for him much wealth; the thimble, as symbolic of the first bride among them, was cut by Dolores Dutton, while the button, signifying the life of the proverbial "old maid," was cut by Louise Johnson. Following this an ice-cream was served on the lawn to the hostess, assistant hostesses, Dolores Dutton, Louise Johnson, Ruth Tom Frame, Lottie Tom Walcott, Guldamar Walcott, Lucile Randol, Leola and Janice Nichols, Florence Stonum, William Easley, Charles Adams, Sidney Williams, Robert Kyle, David Presnell, Roland Jarrett of Oklahoma City, C. The following item will be of interest to the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Williams and family, of Corpus Christi, who made their home in Ardmore for several years. This was enclosed in a letter in which it was stated that while they had suffered financial loss in the recent storm at Corpus Christi and had gone through a terrible experience, they were all safe, and not one hurt physically.

"Miss Gladys Collier entertained at her home in McAllen with a garden party Tuesday night complimenting her house guest, Miss Gladys Williams of Corpus Christi. The party was one of unusual delight to many of the guests, who were New York men stationed in the beautiful valley. The night was ideal and the setting decidedly southern in atmosphere and design. The lawn, with the trees laden with oranges, lemons and bananas heavy with shadows and fragrance, with the moonlight dancing was arranged for games. During the first get-acquainted hour, the game of "bunco" banished all formality. The mandolin club of Squadron A, a picked company of New York men, furnished the music, which was in tone with poetical atmosphere. The steel-stringed guitar was played by Mr. Lazzo. Those who danced found the music unusually entrancing. Punch was served during the evening by Misses Louis McChesney of Brownsville, Clara Archer, Mary Glascock and Hazel Archer. During the last hour the personality of each guest was emphasized in original responses to the call for "stunts." These gave songs, funny stories, readings and choruses of "songs of favorite songs. This "bright spot" in the weeks of

The happy crowd was composed of Misses Wickline, Beaumont, Kate Roberts, Donna, Ethel Hooks, Beaumont, Marian Sweris-fager, Donna, Gladys Hall, Irene Hall, Hazel and Clara Archer, Mary Glascock, Lois McChesney, Brownsville; Winnie Hardin, Burras Taylor, Jeanette Kriedler, Ellen Moore, Corpus Christi; Miss Muller, Miss Moser, Bishop; Olive Vertres, Mrs. G. No, Mr. Grocer, that's mostly water. Since the war started it's more nearly all water than ever. Give me Red Cross Ball Blue, that's a two-ounce package of real goodness. You should see my clothes. I just can't keep from smiling out loud.—Adv.
